

Do the right thing!

-Everyday dilemmas in obstetrics and gynecology and how to deal with them.

Läkarsällskapet, Östra Klara kyrkogata 10, Stockholm
April 25-26, 2019

Day 1

1200 Registration and Lunch

1300 Welcome

1305 Intervention on patient request Statistics, has it changed?
Short and longterm complications, where do we stand leagally. Informed consent

1305-1335 Induction and Cesarian Section. Ellika Andolf, Sweden

1335-1405 Hysterectomy Tea Brummer Finland/Norway

1405-1435 Labioplasty and vaginal rejuvenation. Screen for BDD.
Katrin Kristjansdottir, Island

1435-1500 Coffee break

1500 The patient, the media....and oh yeah, the doctor

1500-1520 What are we up against? -How does media coverage influence us?
(introduction on what is out there. Bloggers, sites, cases, headlines, advertising).
Elisabeth Rosén

1520-1620 “ Strategies to influence decision making through media (Elisabeth Tisot Ludvig)

1620-1630 Coffee break

1630-1700 Vaccination and screening-using social media to your advantage
(Amelie Trope, Norway)

1700 -1730 Are we at war with the Media? The role of ob/gyns in advocating the for womens health. Panel discussion

1900 Dinner

Day 2

0900 Equity and equality in obstetrcis and gynecology

0900-0950 Lost in translation-Immigrant reproductive health Birgitta Essén, Sweden.

0950-1020 Equity in practice Inför Socioeconomic status. Harmful steriotyping of patients Maria Hedström, Sweden.

1020-1030 Coffe break

1030 Work life balance

1030-1100 Second victim phenomenon Åsa Wahlberg

1100-1200 What can you do to make changes to your work environment and what is out of your hands Anna Bennich Karlstedt

Mentoring

Life, family and work

Screening for burnout and intervention

1200 Panel discussion

1230 Lunch and goodbye